

West Side Department

BEVAN-JONES NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed Last Night in the First Welsh Baptist Church in the Presence of a Large Assemblage.

The wedding last evening at 8 o'clock of Miss Jennie Bevan, of Hampton street, to Rev. M. H. Jones, pastor of the Baptist church at Parsons, drew out an assemblage that crowded the large auditorium of the First Welsh Baptist church on South Main avenue.

The bride wore white silk with trimmings of pearl and chiffon. She carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Evans, Miss Williams, Miss Jones, Miss Davis, Miss Smith, Miss Brown, Miss White, Miss Green, Miss Black, Miss Grey, Miss Gold, Miss Silver, Miss Bronze, Miss Copper, Miss Iron, Miss Lead, Miss Tin, Miss Zinc, Miss Nickel, Miss Cadmium, Miss Mercury, Miss Antimony, Miss Arsenic, Miss Selenium, Miss Tellurium, Miss Iodine, Miss Bromine, Miss Chlorine, Miss Fluorine, Miss Oxygen, Miss Hydrogen, Miss Nitrogen, Miss Phosphorus, Miss Sulfur, Miss Carbon, Miss Silicon, Miss Boron, Miss Magnesium, Miss Calcium, Miss Strontium, Miss Barium, Miss Potassium, Miss Sodium, Miss Lithium, Miss Rubidium, Miss Cesium, Miss Francium, Miss Radium, Miss Actinium, Miss Thorium, Miss Uranium, Miss Protactinium, Miss Neptunium, Miss Plutonium, Miss Americium, Miss Curium, Miss Berkelium, Miss Californium, Miss Einsteinium, Miss Fermium, Miss Mendelevium, Miss Nobelium, Miss Lawrencium, Miss Rutherfordium, Miss Dubnium, Miss Seaborgium, Miss Bohrium, Miss Hassium, Miss Tennessium, Miss Oganesson.

The wedding service was opened with a reading of Scriptures by Rev. W. F. Davis. Rev. D. J. Williams gave the closing prayer. After the ceremony a number of invited guests assembled at the home of the bride's parents, 1130 Hampton street, and passed a pleasant evening.

Features of the evening's pleasure was the reading of original verses by Ebenezer P. Davis, in English, and Henry P. Davis, in Welsh. Charles Richards sang a number of songs. A good substantial supper was served to the guests. Among those present were: Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Jones, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Morris, Rev. and Mrs. R. I. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Bevan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins, Mr. and Mrs. John Truesdell, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. William Richards, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherhog, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards, Bessie Jones, Edith Jones, Jennie Evans, Doris Jones, Jennie Jones, Bessie Thomas, Emily Evans, Sarah Meredith, Stella Meredith, Sadie M. Peters, Mary Jones, Lizzie Jones, Annie Davis, Gwen Jones, Norma Kelley, Annie Bevan, Lizzie Richards, Mary A. Nichols, Eva Davies, May Richards, Lizzie Hughes, Annie Jenkins, Jennie Robbins, Lizzie Daggar, Sadie Jones, Maggie Williams, Lizzie James, Mattie Williams, Laura Howells, Sarah Williams, Gomer Reese, William Green, William Morgan, J. Parsons, Charles Richards, John Griffiths, Handel Jones, William Weatherhog, Walter Jones, Thomas Pitchford, John Jones, Jenkin Reynolds, John Williams, William Robertson, David Richards, William Lewis, David Jones, John R. James, John M. Edwards, Edward Edwards, Hugh Williams and Thomas Moses, Rev. and Mrs. Jones will live at Parsons.

WOES OF WEISBERG. Henry Weisberg lives on Jackson street and does huckstering for a living. Yesterday afternoon he got more than a peck of trouble. He was arrested for stealing a harness and when Constable Timothy Jones was serving the warrant the stuff in the wagon, by its strong smell, attracted his attention and the result of an investigation was that Weisberg is now held under $500 bail on suspicion of selling oleomargarine for the real article. J.

OUR OWN JOHN T. WATKINS. Programme of a concert given this month at Hanover square, London, show that our own John T. Watkins participated in a dramatic production, which, in the programme states, has among its patronesses Her Majesty the queen, the Princess of Wales, and all the other excellencies. Two plays were given. In "Romco and Juliet" Mr. Watkins played the Friar, and in "As You Like It," he performed its most famous character, Jacques.

THIS EVENING'S CONCERT. For the benefit of the West Side hospital a concert will be given this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, in St. David's hall. The arrangements have been under the direction of Miss Margaret Jones and other West Side young ladies. The programme which has been widely advertised is one of the best ever arranged for the entertainment of a West Side audience.

FINGERS BADLY CRUSHED. Benjamin Jenkins, aged 23 years, whose home is on Fourteenth street, had two fingers on his left hand crushed yesterday morning by an accident in the Central mines. Jenkins was turning a latch for an oncoming car but he misjudged the distance and the first wheel ran over his hand.

A PROMISING LEADER. William R. Jones, of Bellevue, whose sweet voice was heard at the smoker of Hyde Park castle, No. 246, Knights of the Golden Eagle, Monday night, is one of the promising leaders of this part of the city. Mr. Jones is a natural musician and has been very successful in

C. King, the second-hand goods man, was also held under $500 bail for receiving the harness. The man who caused these doings is Edward Farr, of West Lackawanna avenue. About one week ago Mr. Farr missed from his barn a harness. Since that time his son will have been on the lookout for the father's property. He discovered the harness on Weisberg's horse and a warrant was sworn out before Alderman Johns. While serving the warrant Constable Jones smelled a peculiar odor and Weisberg was questioned. He bought the harness of a farmer, paying 12 cents a pound for it. He sold it at 16 cents per pound. As good butter is 23 cents per pound the constable's suspicions were made as strong as the "butter." When Weisberg was brought to the alderman's office the stuff he was selling was taken along. Food Inspector Cullen was sent for, but he was out of town yesterday and the "butter," 150 pounds of it, is now stored in the alderman's mansion awaiting an inspection. Weisberg was badly rattled when on the stand. He said that he had purchased his goods from John T. Porter, notwithstanding his previous statement about the farmer. The "butter" is in cakes and units, each piece weighing a pound or less. There is a penalty of $100 for all persons discovered with imitation butter in their possession. The harness case will come up for a further hearing this afternoon at 2 o'clock. An outline of the case will then be disposed of also.

FREE EDUCATIONAL TREAT. The public will have an opportunity this evening of hearing a good literary entertainment in Ivorite hall where the members of Robert Morris lodge will furnish the treat. John C. Morris, than whom no Welsh-American can expect on the subject, will give an address on "Ivorism." Following this a debate will be participated in by members of the lodge on the subject, "Resolved, That the United States should seek to extend its territorial limits." The affirmative will be taken by Howell Harris and Attorney W. K. Lewis; negative, E. E. Kobathan and J. J. Davis.

WOMAN-LESS DINNER-GIVERS. A bachelor's social was held last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The affair was patronized by a large crowd of young people. The "bachelors," who did everything from serving to dish washing, are: John Jones, David J. Jones, secretary, William Davis, John Davis, Jonathan T. Jones, Fay Evans, Daniel Evans, W. J. Watkins, Morgan Watkins, David Gibbs, Robert Owens, John Davis, T. J. Mathias, Seth Jones, Ed. Reese, William Jones, Thomas Evans, John Evans and Luther Lewis.

West Side Business Directory. HARRIS T. DANIEL, florist; 141 1/2 South Main avenue, two doors from Jackson street.

MORGAN'S PHARMACY, 101 N. MAIN avenue, Physicians' prescriptions carefully prepared from warranted pure drugs and chemicals. Also, a full line of trusses, the stationery, blank books, varnish stains, nickel plated or fancy work artists' materials, etc. Call at store all hours of night.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. King, 704 to 708 West Lackawanna avenue.

AMUSEMENTS. It is easy to understand how Brandon Thomas' "Charley's Aunt" became a rage in London and America. It is so ridiculously false and insincere when compared with everything that has ever happened in real life that an audience at all sympathetic or willing to be pleased cannot help being cruciatingly funny. An instance in point is the dismay of Miss Margaret when they find their sweetheart rapturously kissing the supposed old lady, the latter's face overspread with a humorously mingled expression of amazement and sublime content. To enumerate the funny situations in the piece, would, however, mean to go through the entire comedy from beginning to end, for the reason that there is in it, "Charley's Aunt" will be seen at the Academy of Music tonight.

"The Land of the Living" will be seen at the Academy of Music Friday and Saturday nights with a matinee Saturday afternoon. Many of the principal episodes in "The Land of the Living" have been sketched from life by the author, and the characters are strongly drawn and very familiar to every traveler. The forthcoming production will be under the personal direction of Martin Dixon, Frank Karrington, a young romantic actor, who has made a strong impression in the role of General Frimley. He will be surrounded by a company which is far ahead of that usually seen in sensational productions.

New York City is actually existing on the East Side is what Manager Harry Williams has presented to the public in his successful play, "A Bowery Girl," which will appear at the Frothingham tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday nights and at a matinee Saturday afternoon. The story of the play are laid in New York city, and the story deals with the denizens of what is known as the great east side of the metropolis. Grace Sherwood, the clever comedienne, will play the title role, and the local scenery is carried by the company. A number of strong specialties will be introduced by Miss Sherwood, Carrie Ezler, John Daly and Andy Aman.

The best popular priced organization that has visited Scranton is promised without reservation by the Frothingham management for all next week in the appearance of the Spooners Comedy company, which will open Monday next, at Washington street, at a special 10-cent matinee and will be seen each evening during the week with popular dime matinees each day with change of programme at each performance.

As the saying goes, "A good tale will bear telling twice," and so the theater-going public of this city will no doubt welcome the return of "The Pulse of New York," which comes to Davis' theater today for the balance of the week led in its new attire, consisting of scenery, effects, etc., and presented by a matchless company of artists, headed by Stella Mayhew and Chris Bruno.

"The Pulse of New York" may be described as a happy blend of the farce, melodrama and vaudeville, and is therefore sure to meet the tastes of every one. Particular attention is paid to the vaudeville department, which is apparently the reigning fad in things theatrical of present times, and one act is devoted exclusively to that, when is presented a series of high-class specialties.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Suburban News In General

PROVIDENCE.

In Holy Rosary church yesterday Miss Hannah Thornton, of Oak street, was married to John F. Jennings, of Hudson street, by Rev. J. P. O'Neil. The ceremony was preceded by a nuptial mass. Miss Katie Thornton, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Martin Jennings was best man. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride, 235 Cherry street. The bride and her attendants left the church, and her attendants sent a very pretty appearance. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of the bride and groom at the Thornton residence, on Oak street, at 9 1/2 M. Mrs. Jennings will spend their honeymoon at Northampton, Mass.

Choice cut flowers and flower designs, at Palmer & McDonalds, 54 Spruce.

R. W. Henderson, of South Main avenue, has returned from a few days' visit at Oxford Furnace, N. J.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Carroll have returned from a visit at Binghamton.

Mrs. H. H. Banford and family, of North Sumner avenue, have returned from a visit in Plymouth.

Dedictory services of the new No. 36 school will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. An outline of the exercises was given in Tuesday's Tribune.

We laundry stiff collars with soft button holes. Crystal Laundry.

Mrs. John Roberts, of Treasurer, Ill., who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Enoch Harris, of South Main avenue, returned home yesterday.

In the contest for a gold watch at the Red Men's entertainment Monday evening Miss Emily Williams was elected Captain. Mr. M. D. Bunnell will give an address on Washington next Monday evening before Globe lodge.

The latest and best styles. Roberts, 126 North Main.

A delegation from the Free and Accepted Masons of Hyde Park and the central city will pay a visit this evening to Otsego lodge at Binghamton.

The revival service at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church seem to be increasing in interest.

Mrs. D. M. Jones and daughter, Ethel, of South Main avenue, were visiting at Wilkes-Barre Tuesday.

Dr. E. Y. Harrison, Dentist, Meers Hall 12 S. Main street.

The Plymouth Mission Sabbath school building on Sherman avenue is being enlarged. The attendance at the school has increased and the work is being carried on with much interest. Miss Della Evans is superintendent of the school.

West Side Business Directory. HARRIS T. DANIEL, florist; 141 1/2 South Main avenue, two doors from Jackson street.

MORGAN'S PHARMACY, 101 N. MAIN avenue, Physicians' prescriptions carefully prepared from warranted pure drugs and chemicals. Also, a full line of trusses, the stationery, blank books, varnish stains, nickel plated or fancy work artists' materials, etc. Call at store all hours of night.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. King, 704 to 708 West Lackawanna avenue.

AMUSEMENTS. It is easy to understand how Brandon Thomas' "Charley's Aunt" became a rage in London and America. It is so ridiculously false and insincere when compared with everything that has ever happened in real life that an audience at all sympathetic or willing to be pleased cannot help being cruciatingly funny. An instance in point is the dismay of Miss Margaret when they find their sweetheart rapturously kissing the supposed old lady, the latter's face overspread with a humorously mingled expression of amazement and sublime content. To enumerate the funny situations in the piece, would, however, mean to go through the entire comedy from beginning to end, for the reason that there is in it, "Charley's Aunt" will be seen at the Academy of Music tonight.

"The Land of the Living" will be seen at the Academy of Music Friday and Saturday nights with a matinee Saturday afternoon. Many of the principal episodes in "The Land of the Living" have been sketched from life by the author, and the characters are strongly drawn and very familiar to every traveler. The forthcoming production will be under the personal direction of Martin Dixon, Frank Karrington, a young romantic actor, who has made a strong impression in the role of General Frimley. He will be surrounded by a company which is far ahead of that usually seen in sensational productions.

New York City is actually existing on the East Side is what Manager Harry Williams has presented to the public in his successful play, "A Bowery Girl," which will appear at the Frothingham tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday nights and at a matinee Saturday afternoon. The story of the play are laid in New York city, and the story deals with the denizens of what is known as the great east side of the metropolis. Grace Sherwood, the clever comedienne, will play the title role, and the local scenery is carried by the company. A number of strong specialties will be introduced by Miss Sherwood, Carrie Ezler, John Daly and Andy Aman.

The best popular priced organization that has visited Scranton is promised without reservation by the Frothingham management for all next week in the appearance of the Spooners Comedy company, which will open Monday next, at Washington street, at a special 10-cent matinee and will be seen each evening during the week with popular dime matinees each day with change of programme at each performance.

As the saying goes, "A good tale will bear telling twice," and so the theater-going public of this city will no doubt welcome the return of "The Pulse of New York," which comes to Davis' theater today for the balance of the week led in its new attire, consisting of scenery, effects, etc., and presented by a matchless company of artists, headed by Stella Mayhew and Chris Bruno.

"The Pulse of New York" may be described as a happy blend of the farce, melodrama and vaudeville, and is therefore sure to meet the tastes of every one. Particular attention is paid to the vaudeville department, which is apparently the reigning fad in things theatrical of present times, and one act is devoted exclusively to that, when is presented a series of high-class specialties.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Suburban News In General

PROVIDENCE.

In Holy Rosary church yesterday Miss Hannah Thornton, of Oak street, was married to John F. Jennings, of Hudson street, by Rev. J. P. O'Neil. The ceremony was preceded by a nuptial mass. Miss Katie Thornton, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Martin Jennings was best man. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride, 235 Cherry street. The bride and her attendants left the church, and her attendants sent a very pretty appearance. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of the bride and groom at the Thornton residence, on Oak street, at 9 1/2 M. Mrs. Jennings will spend their honeymoon at Northampton, Mass.

Choice cut flowers and flower designs, at Palmer & McDonalds, 54 Spruce.

R. W. Henderson, of South Main avenue, has returned from a few days' visit at Oxford Furnace, N. J.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Carroll have returned from a visit at Binghamton.

Mrs. H. H. Banford and family, of North Sumner avenue, have returned from a visit in Plymouth.

Dedictory services of the new No. 36 school will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. An outline of the exercises was given in Tuesday's Tribune.

We laundry stiff collars with soft button holes. Crystal Laundry.

Mrs. John Roberts, of Treasurer, Ill., who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Enoch Harris, of South Main avenue, returned home yesterday.

In the contest for a gold watch at the Red Men's entertainment Monday evening Miss Emily Williams was elected Captain. Mr. M. D. Bunnell will give an address on Washington next Monday evening before Globe lodge.

The latest and best styles. Roberts, 126 North Main.

A delegation from the Free and Accepted Masons of Hyde Park and the central city will pay a visit this evening to Otsego lodge at Binghamton.

The revival service at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church seem to be increasing in interest.

Mrs. D. M. Jones and daughter, Ethel, of South Main avenue, were visiting at Wilkes-Barre Tuesday.

Dr. E. Y. Harrison, Dentist, Meers Hall 12 S. Main street.

The Plymouth Mission Sabbath school building on Sherman avenue is being enlarged. The attendance at the school has increased and the work is being carried on with much interest. Miss Della Evans is superintendent of the school.

West Side Business Directory. HARRIS T. DANIEL, florist; 141 1/2 South Main avenue, two doors from Jackson street.

MORGAN'S PHARMACY, 101 N. MAIN avenue, Physicians' prescriptions carefully prepared from warranted pure drugs and chemicals. Also, a full line of trusses, the stationery, blank books, varnish stains, nickel plated or fancy work artists' materials, etc. Call at store all hours of night.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. King, 704 to 708 West Lackawanna avenue.

AMUSEMENTS. It is easy to understand how Brandon Thomas' "Charley's Aunt" became a rage in London and America. It is so ridiculously false and insincere when compared with everything that has ever happened in real life that an audience at all sympathetic or willing to be pleased cannot help being cruciatingly funny. An instance in point is the dismay of Miss Margaret when they find their sweetheart rapturously kissing the supposed old lady, the latter's face overspread with a humorously mingled expression of amazement and sublime content. To enumerate the funny situations in the piece, would, however, mean to go through the entire comedy from beginning to end, for the reason that there is in it, "Charley's Aunt" will be seen at the Academy of Music tonight.

"The Land of the Living" will be seen at the Academy of Music Friday and Saturday nights with a matinee Saturday afternoon. Many of the principal episodes in "The Land of the Living" have been sketched from life by the author, and the characters are strongly drawn and very familiar to every traveler. The forthcoming production will be under the personal direction of Martin Dixon, Frank Karrington, a young romantic actor, who has made a strong impression in the role of General Frimley. He will be surrounded by a company which is far ahead of that usually seen in sensational productions.

New York City is actually existing on the East Side is what Manager Harry Williams has presented to the public in his successful play, "A Bowery Girl," which will appear at the Frothingham tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday nights and at a matinee Saturday afternoon. The story of the play are laid in New York city, and the story deals with the denizens of what is known as the great east side of the metropolis. Grace Sherwood, the clever comedienne, will play the title role, and the local scenery is carried by the company. A number of strong specialties will be introduced by Miss Sherwood, Carrie Ezler, John Daly and Andy Aman.

The best popular priced organization that has visited Scranton is promised without reservation by the Frothingham management for all next week in the appearance of the Spooners Comedy company, which will open Monday next, at Washington street, at a special 10-cent matinee and will be seen each evening during the week with popular dime matinees each day with change of programme at each performance.

As the saying goes, "A good tale will bear telling twice," and so the theater-going public of this city will no doubt welcome the return of "The Pulse of New York," which comes to Davis' theater today for the balance of the week led in its new attire, consisting of scenery, effects, etc., and presented by a matchless company of artists, headed by Stella Mayhew and Chris Bruno.

"The Pulse of New York" may be described as a happy blend of the farce, melodrama and vaudeville, and is therefore sure to meet the tastes of every one. Particular attention is paid to the vaudeville department, which is apparently the reigning fad in things theatrical of present times, and one act is devoted exclusively to that, when is presented a series of high-class specialties.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Suburban News In General

PROVIDENCE.

In Holy Rosary church yesterday Miss Hannah Thornton, of Oak street, was married to John F. Jennings, of Hudson street, by Rev. J. P. O'Neil. The ceremony was preceded by a nuptial mass. Miss Katie Thornton, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Martin Jennings was best man. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride, 235 Cherry street. The bride and her attendants left the church, and her attendants sent a very pretty appearance. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of the bride and groom at the Thornton residence, on Oak street, at 9 1/2 M. Mrs. Jennings will spend their honeymoon at Northampton, Mass.

Choice cut flowers and flower designs, at Palmer & McDonalds, 54 Spruce.

R. W. Henderson, of South Main avenue, has returned from a few days' visit at Oxford Furnace, N. J.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Carroll have returned from a visit at Binghamton.

Mrs. H. H. Banford and family, of North Sumner avenue, have returned from a visit in Plymouth.

Dedictory services of the new No. 36 school will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. An outline of the exercises was given in Tuesday's Tribune.

We laundry stiff collars with soft button holes. Crystal Laundry.

Mrs. John Roberts, of Treasurer, Ill., who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Enoch Harris, of South Main avenue, returned home yesterday.

In the contest for a gold watch at the Red Men's entertainment Monday evening Miss Emily Williams was elected Captain. Mr. M. D. Bunnell will give an address on Washington next Monday evening before Globe lodge.

The latest and best styles. Roberts, 126 North Main.

A delegation from the Free and Accepted Masons of Hyde Park and the central city will pay a visit this evening to Otsego lodge at Binghamton.

The revival service at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church seem to be increasing in interest.

Mrs. D. M. Jones and daughter, Ethel, of South Main avenue, were visiting at Wilkes-Barre Tuesday.

Dr. E. Y. Harrison, Dentist, Meers Hall 12 S. Main street.

The Plymouth Mission Sabbath school building on Sherman avenue is being enlarged. The attendance at the school has increased and the work is being carried on with much interest. Miss Della Evans is superintendent of the school.

West Side Business Directory. HARRIS T. DANIEL, florist; 141 1/2 South Main avenue, two doors from Jackson street.

MORGAN'S PHARMACY, 101 N. MAIN avenue, Physicians' prescriptions carefully prepared from warranted pure drugs and chemicals. Also, a full line of trusses, the stationery, blank books, varnish stains, nickel plated or fancy work artists' materials, etc. Call at store all hours of night.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. King, 704 to 708 West Lackawanna avenue.

AMUSEMENTS. It is easy to understand how Brandon Thomas' "Charley's Aunt" became a rage in London and America. It is so ridiculously false and insincere when compared with everything that has ever happened in real life that an audience at all sympathetic or willing to be pleased cannot help being cruciatingly funny. An instance in point is the dismay of Miss Margaret when they find their sweetheart rapturously kissing the supposed old lady, the latter's face overspread with a humorously mingled expression of amazement and sublime content. To enumerate the funny situations in the piece, would, however, mean to go through the entire comedy from beginning to end, for the reason that there is in it, "Charley's Aunt" will be seen at the Academy of Music tonight.

"The Land of the Living" will be seen at the Academy of Music Friday and Saturday nights with a matinee Saturday afternoon. Many of the principal episodes in "The Land of the Living" have been sketched from life by the author, and the characters are strongly drawn and very familiar to every traveler. The forthcoming production will be under the personal direction of Martin Dixon, Frank Karrington, a young romantic actor, who has made a strong impression in the role of General Frimley. He will be surrounded by a company which is far ahead of that usually seen in sensational productions.

New York City is actually existing on the East Side is what Manager Harry Williams has presented to the public in his successful play, "A Bowery Girl," which will appear at the Frothingham tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday nights and at a matinee Saturday afternoon. The story of the play are laid in New York city, and the story deals with the denizens of what is known as the great east side of the metropolis. Grace Sherwood, the clever comedienne, will play the title role, and the local scenery is carried by the company. A number of strong specialties will be introduced by Miss Sherwood, Carrie Ezler, John Daly and Andy Aman.

The best popular priced organization that has visited Scranton is promised without reservation by the Frothingham management for all next week in the appearance of the Spooners Comedy company, which will open Monday next, at Washington street, at a special 10-cent matinee and will be seen each evening during the week with popular dime matinees each day with change of programme at each performance.

As the saying goes, "A good tale will bear telling twice," and so the theater-going public of this city will no doubt welcome the return of "The Pulse of New York," which comes to Davis' theater today for the balance of the week led in its new attire, consisting of scenery, effects, etc., and presented by a matchless company of artists, headed by Stella Mayhew and Chris Bruno.

"The Pulse of New York" may be described as a happy blend of the farce, melodrama and vaudeville, and is therefore sure to meet the tastes of every one. Particular attention is paid to the vaudeville department, which is apparently the reigning fad in things theatrical of present times, and one act is devoted exclusively to that, when is presented a series of high-class specialties.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

OBITUARY.

After an illness of about ten days with pneumonia, Lou T. Payne, the well-known Spruce street liverman, died Tuesday evening in his home, 71 Olive street. Mr. Payne was born in Lenox, Pa., thirty-eight years ago. He has lived in this city for twenty-five years, during fifteen years of which he was actively identified with the livey business. Seven years ago he purchased Westervelt's stable, on Spruce street, where he continued in business until his demise. About six and a half years ago he married Miss Vina Gorman, of Lenox, who, together with a daughter, 2 years of age, and a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Payne, of Lenoxville, survive him. Of a bright, cheerful and manly disposition, his treatment of his fellow-men and employees was always such as to gain him the respect of his friends. He was a member of Scranton lodge 123 of Elks, and that body will have charge of the obsequies. The funeral will be held at the Elks, and the lodge will attend, in a body, the funeral, which will be held this morning at 11 o'clock from the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. Dr. Robinson will perform the ceremony. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Foster, and the Elks will accompany the remains via the Erie, Lackawanna and Western railroad, to that place and a brief service prescribed by the ritual of the lodge will be observed. Among the officers who will go to Foster are: Exalted Ruler F. W. Martin, Esteemed Leading Knight W. Welch, Esteemed Loyal Knight H. H. Stimmer, Esteemed Lecturing Knight Thomas Ruddy and Chaplain G. E. Davis.

On last Friday afternoon, in Texas township, Wayne county, the death occurred of Mary Bassett, wife of Thomas Kellor. Her age was 54 years. Bassett is survived by a husband and two sons and four daughters as follows: John, of Scranton; George, of Carbondale; Mrs. Edna Doolittle, of Scranton; Mrs. Sarah Doolittle, of Scranton; and Mrs. Minnie, of Honesdale. The funeral was held Monday.

At Hamtown, Pittston, on Tuesday died John Tiebler, sr., one of the oldest inhabitants of that place. His age was 71 years. He was a native of Pennsylvania and had lived in the house in which he died. He is survived by his wife and seven children. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

Pearl, the 6-months-old daughter of Frank E. Ryan, of Lackawanna county, Haworth street, Avoca, died yesterday morning after a few days' illness of diphtheria. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Patrick Barrett died yesterday at her home on Taylor avenue, this city. She is survived by a husband and a large family. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence, 215 Taylor avenue.

On Sunday morning, at Plane No. 16 Mrs. Ellen Ryan, mother of Deputy Sheriff Frank E. Ryan, of Lackawanna county, passed away at the age of 33 years. The funeral was held on Tuesday at Canaan, Wayne county.

Moses Bertram, aged 69 years, died Tuesday at Wilkes-Barre, of heart trouble. He is survived by a widow and five children. Funeral this morning.

James Shiffer, of Dorranceton, died Tuesday night of pneumonia at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Van Campen. His age was 73 years.

For Perma Cent Censur Bureau. Washington, Feb. 17.—The senate committee on the census today reported favorably on the bill, H. R. 107, which provided for taking the twelfth and subsequent censuses by a permanent census bureau.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the inflamed membrane, reduces the fever, and cures the pain. It is the best remedy for diarrhea, cold, whooping cough, and all the ailments of infancy. It is sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

MIXED POLITICS AT GRAND RAPIDS. Silver Democrats, Silver Republicans and Populists. Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 17.—The state convention of the silver Democrats, silver Republicans and Populists was held today to select a candidate for justice of the supreme bench and a recent of the university. The Populists and silver Democrats refused to fuse and held a convention and nominated a ticket of their own.

The fusionists adopted resolutions which reaffirmed the Chicago platform, declared that free and unlimited coin-

AMUSEMENTS. THE FROTHINGHAM. Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19 and 20. Matinee Saturday. Harry Williams' Great Play of Life in the Fitzsimmons.

A Bowery Girl. A New Company. Marvelous Mechanical and Scenic Effects. Evening prices 15, 25 and 50 cents. Matinee prices, gallery, 10c; balcony of boxes reserved. Sale of seats commences Wednesday, February 17.

THE FROTHINGHAM. Wagner & Reis, Managers. John L. Kerr, Acting Manager. Week Commencing Monday, February 22d. Opening with a special Washington Birth-Matinee. Monday, America's Greatest Repertoire Organization.

The Spooners Comedy. An excellent supporting company. Change of Bill Nightly. Dime Matinee Daily. Monday Night, "The Judge's Wife." Tuesday Night, "The Mexican Romance." Evening prices, 10c, 15c, 25c, 50c. Matinee 10c to all parts of the house. On Monday evening only and one gentleman or two ladies admitted on one 50c ticket. If reserved between 9 a. m. Friday and 6 p. m. Monday.

RUBBER STAMPS. Lodge and Corporation Seals, Rubber Stamp Ints. All Colors, Daters, Pads, Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Revolvers, Razors